GNH TOURS

Bhutan development philosophy is geared towards fulfillment of Gross National Happiness, or GNH the four pillars of which are: Equitable Socio economic development : Preservation of cultural heritage: conservation of pristine environment and good governance. Our development planning and policies are rooted deep in this concept. On our GNH tours, you can experience at firsthand implementation of these goals in the daily life of our people.

Culture Tours

While Bhutan is one of the smallest countries in the world, its cultural diversity and richness are profound.

As such, strong emphasis is laid on the promotion and preservation of its unique culture. By protecting and nurturing Bhutan's living culture it is believed that it will help guard the sovereignty of the nation. -

Trekking in Bhutan would bring you to feel the very different aspect of the world and you would get to know, how Bhutanese live their life on these terrains and mountains, covered with snows and far from the reach of modern civilization. For one, it would mean to discover the Hidden Lands of the Himalayan Kingdom and the secret that very few knows about.

Trekking in Bhutan would mean, a walk of thousand miles, within forest, sometimes having to cross the river without bridge and one would see different vegetation cover. As most of treks are done in protected areas, you would come across little and safe numbers of wildlife. You would be driven by your guide to trek, where the Tourism Department of Bhutan has set the route, to ensure you the safety of wild animals, sickness yet, to give you a great pleasure.

Food, A Taste of Tradition – Sample the delicious Haapi Hoentoe, hearty dumplings made from buckwheat and stuffed with fragrant grated turnip, dried turnip greens, mushrooms, garlic, onions and chopped cabbage seasoned with ginger, ground walnut, chilli-powder, salt, butter, sesame and poppy seeds.

PHOTOGRAPHING & FILMING TOURS

Bhutan offers a wide range of subjects for photography: lowering mountains, beautiful waterfalls, varied vegetation on the hillsides and in the valleys, animals and birds, traditional cultures and architecture, our people and much, much more. Bhutan is quite different from other countries and we Bhutanese believe it is another planet on earth
